Magazine

Direct Mailed To 75,000 of the Most Affluent Homes Less Than A Penny Per Household

The Upclose family of magazines are designed to give readers an “UpClose” look at the individuals who run and operate local retail and service outlets. We understand that people prefer to do business with people. UpClose Magazine gives the community a chance to meet people and their businesses through our pages. Using a glossy, 70lb paper, and a full color format, our magazines take full advantage of this unique and effective marketing technique that delivers your message with an impact. Allow us to create an attractive and personalized ad campaign for your business that includes a Detailed Interview With Article, Professional Photography, Graphics, and Design Package. We know that behind every business and smile there is a story, and we would like to help tell yours!
